Prices per pair

1. Resole including general repair of faulty parts, e.g. stretching over a last to smooth the leather, replacing laces and insoles (not including the removable insoles). £47
However, the shoes (leather uppers, lining) must be in good enough condition to warrant repair.
2. Resole including midsole and general repair of faulty parts, e.g. stretching over a last to smooth the leather, replacing laces and insoles (not including the removable insoles) providing the shoes are in good enough condition to warrant the repair. £59
3. General repair, without resole, e.g. sewing faulty seams, eyelet replacement if necessary, renewing faulty heel lining, glue, stretching over the last to regain shape, new insole (not including the removable insoles), new laces. £18

Resoling is of course only sensible if the repair will improve the general state of the shoes, i.e. the uppers and lining are in good condition and it is foreseeable that the repair will give you a considerable extension to the useful life of the shoes. Don't hesitate to call us. We would be happy to advise you.

Orthopaedic modifications

- | | | | |
|--|------|--|-----|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Raise sole by up to 10 mm per shoe | £38 | <input type="checkbox"/> 6. Raise sole by up to 20 mm per shoe | £77 |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 5. Raise sole by up to 30 mm per shoe | £115 | <input type="checkbox"/> 7. Raise heel by up to 10 mm per shoe | £19 |

Other orthopaedic modifications on request. Orthopaedic and any other changes can only be made after the shoes have been paid for in full.

A surcharge of £3.90 will be added to your bill to cover postage costs.

We would be happy to advise you and of course will tell you if there are any limitations and just what "miracles" our shoemakers can and cannot perform. Once repaired, your shoes will be sent back to your home.
